

Mary Hathaway-Evans

Mary joined NICHQ in July 2008, and currently oversees public events. She leads the Training and Events Team as they plan and carry out NICHQ's signature Annual Forum for Improving Children's Healthcare, a national childhood obesity congress, intensive quality improvement trainings, train-the-trainer activities, other programming surrounding events and other trainings that may vary each year. Prior to NICHQ, Mary was the Assistant Director of Harris County Protective Services for Children and Adults Region 6 Training Institute in Houston, TX. Her responsibilities there included the creation, content development, delivery, and modification of educational materials for county employees. Mary speaks 11 different languages including: Cherokee, Navajo, Choctaw, Lakota, and Iroquois. She has her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Doctorate of Philosophy in Political Science.