

Bio for Jenae Neiman

Jenae graduated in 1998 from Creighton University with a Bachelors of Science of Nursing, post graduation she was a pediatric Oncology/Bone Marrow Transplant nurse at both Children's Mercy Hospital in Kansas City and The Children's Hospital, Denver. In 2001 she obtained her MBA from University of Colorado at Denver while serving as an OSHA compliance nurse at Denver Children's Hospital. After finishing her graduate degree she completed a one year fellowship with the CEO of Miami Children's Hospital and then became the Director of the Pediatric Continuing Care Clinic. In 2005, Jenae returned to Denver Children's Hospital and accepted a position as a Quality Management Specialist. In this role she continues to facilitate clinical and operational quality improvement.