

Mike's Bio – Oct 08

Mike Rannie is the manager of the Clinical Informatics Department at The Children's Hospital in Aurora, Colorado. He and his team provide clinical data consultative services to hospital staff members, executives, & investigators. He obtained his Bachelor of Science in Nursing in 1993 and a Masters in Nursing Informatics in 2002. Mike enjoys collaborating on and contributing to quality improvement and patient safety initiatives that involve the use of clinical data. Mike draws on his 12 years of bedside nursing experience as well as his knowledge of various data sources at The Children's Hospital.