

National Initiative for Children's Healthcare Quality

Biographical Data Form

Vincent Schuler

Education (include basic preparation through highest degree held)
Degree	Institution (Name, City, State)	Major Area of Study	Year
Bachelor's	Youngstown State University	Spanish, Latin American Studies, Social Work, Pre-Hospital Nursing/EMS	1987

Use the space below to provide a brief bio describing professional experience or areas of expertise related to involvement in continuing education and particular role, e.g., planner, presenter, administrator, etc.

Vincent Schuyler is the Director of the District of Columbia Partnership to Improve Children's Healthcare Quality (DC-PICHQ) in the Goldberg Center for Community Pediatric Health at the Children's National Medical Center in Washington, D.C. He has trained thousands of individuals and hundreds of organizations across the United States, including, the American College of Rheumatology, American Academy of Cerebral Palsy and Developmental Medicine, Association for Disability and Higher Education, Council for Exceptional Children, Centers for Disease Control (CDC), Federal Bureau of Investigation, Central Intelligence Agency, Food and Drug Administration and the United States Departments of Justice, Commerce, Health and Human Services and Agriculture. As a trainer and consultant, Mr. Schuyler develops and implements customized solutions for approaching for some of today's most complex issues, such as improving child health outcomes, family and patient centered care, coordination of care for children and youth with complex medical issues, cultural and linguistic competency, health literacy and diversity.