

Michael C. Shannon, MD
Presbyterian Healthcare Services
Children's Medical Center

Dr. Shannon joined Presbyterian Hospital as a staff physician in the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit in December 1996 and has served as Medical Director of Pulmonary Services since 1999. He earned his medical degree at the University Of North Dakota School Of Medicine; and, completed his Pediatric Residency, Chief Residency and Pediatric Critical Care Medicine Fellowship at the University of Minnesota. Dr. Shannon has a keen interest in patient safety and quality initiatives.