

Bonnie Zehr, MD

Dr. Zehr has been a pediatrician at Roseville Pediatrics, a large suburban pediatric practice located in Lancaster, PA, since 1994 after completing her residency at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital and A.I. duPont Institute. She has been the lead physician of the Medical Home Team at Roseville since its implementation in 2005.

Roseville joined AAP's QuIIN in 2007 (Quality Improvement Innovation Network). As part of QuIIN Roseville was chosen to actively participate in the Safe and Healthy Beginnings Improvement Project under the leadership of Dr. Zehr. The project developed tools and strategies to improve assessment for risk of hyperbilirubinemia, lactation support and appropriate newborn follow-up within the private practice setting.
